Sales

For insurance purposes, all artists must indicate on the official entry form the availability of his or her work for sale. The price must be stated on the entry form. Prospective buyers will be furnished with purchase contact information.

Artwork Return

For the winning artwork going on tour and not sold, it will be returned in August 2027. A Georgia Artists with DisAbilities representative will contact you when the artwork is ready for pickup. We will also coordinate delivery of sold art with the purchaser.

Awards

Artwork will be juried on Monday, September 14, 2026.

A maximum of 10 “Best in Show” pieces will be selected to receive a $100 award. A maximum of 15 “Distinguished Merit” pieces will be selected to receive a $75 award. A maximum of 20 “Honorable Mention” pieces will receive a $50 award each. Student art will be judged separately. A student is defined as being 18 years of age and under.

Touring Exhibition

A touring exhibition will be assembled from Best in Show, Distinguished Merit and Honorable Mention winners. Please indicate on the entry form if your artwork will be available for this tour. Some size limitations may be imposed for selection in touring exhibition.

If for any reason an artist declines for the artwork to go on tour, it will NOT be judged.

RULES OF ENTRY

If for any reason an artist declines for the artwork to go on tour, it will not be judged.

Each artist may submit up to two (2) entries.

All entries MUST be titled. Untitled entries will NOT be accepted.

Each entry must include a brief biography of the artist.

For insurance purposes, entry forms must include a price or value for each piece.

Georgia Artists with DisAbilities, Inc. reserves the right to reject any entries deemed unsuitable for this Exhibition. We also reserve the right not to accept art that contains violence, political or sexually explicit content.
